That the applicant Chandrakant Shah is 3. the chief conspirator in the assassination of late 1 abour leader Shankar Guna Niyogi. Chhatisgarh region of the State of Madhya Pradesh is very backward and largely inhabited. by adivasis. Sangh' (C.M.M.S) in 1977 and 'Chhatisgarh Hukti Morcha! (C.M.M) in 1978. The strength of the union was estimated to be somewhite near 50,000. Late Shankar Guba Niyogi got a very good response and he started making legitimate demands by making demonstrations, carrying out rallies and processions, staging Dharmas and also resorting to strikes. Simplex Group of Companies, Oswal Iron and Steel Private Ltd., and Osval Steel Industries were all sister concerns. Oswal Iron and Steel Private Ltd. was doing the work of cutting waste iron and this waste iron was being supplied by Simplex Group of Industries. The interest of these concerns were thus complimentary. Since Simplex group of Industries were facing crisis on account of strike etc. Oswal Iron and Steel Limited also faced crisis and it was in this back ground that Chandrakant Shah hatched the conspiracy to finish Shankar Guha Niyogi:
