4, Ashoka Road, New Delhi.

Dated New Delhi, the

25 JAN 1961

Subject:-Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 - Section 12(6) -
Submission of reports on conciliation proceedings -
Proposal to extend the time-limit of.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to this Ministry's letter of even number dated the 20th February, 1960, on the above subject, and to say that after examining the proposal made in the memorandum enclosed therewith carefully and in the light of the views expressed by the various interests concerned, the Government of India consider that section 12(6) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, along with the proviso thereunder, is the most suitable arrangement and that any extension of the time-limit is likely to make the proceedings more dilatory. It has, therefore, been decided not to pursue the proposal contained in the memorandum.

Yours faithfully,

(A.L. Handa)
Under Secretary.

To

1. All State Governments and Union Territories (except Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands).
2. Central Organisations of Employers and Workers.

Dated New Delhi, the 10/2/61

Subject:- Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 - Section 9A - desirability of Conciliation Officers' taking up conciliation of disputes relating to notice of change by employers.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to item No. 5 of the undertaking given by the Chairman of the Committee appointed by the 17th Session of the Standing Labour Committee which met at Bombay on 16th-17th January, 1959, and to say that the question whether Section 9A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 should be amended has been examined in this Ministry and it is considered that there is no need for amending the Act at present. However instructions have been issued by the Central Government as well as most of the State Governments and Administrations to Conciliation Officers
