Subject : Inquiry under Section 7A in respect of M/s. Patel Bidi Products, 745/43,
Cement Chawl, Gomtipur Road, Ahmedabad(GJ/25100) – Regarding.

Madame,

The subject establishment is covered with effect from 1/4/1994 on the basis of complaint made by the SEWA. The establishment has not reported compliance and disputing applicability of the Act, on the ground that establishment never employed more than 19 employees.

2. In this connection your attention is invited to letter dated 26/10/1998 addressed to Shri Sharad Singh, Regional P.F.Commissioner-II pointing out that Bidi Workers working in the above establishment are member of SEWA and would like to be party in the above case, but it is painful to note that SEWA has not produced the list of employees, wages paid and other documentary evidence as desired by this Office letter No. GJ/PFC/AHD/2510/RC(E&R)/PA/1419 dated 22/11/1999.

3. You are, therefore again requested to appear before the undersigned on the next date of hearing fixed for 14/7/2003 along with list of employees working and other documents in support of your contention to enable to decide the long pending issue.

Yours faithfully,

[R.D. DEO]

Dear Sir,

In reference to Inquiry under section 7A in respect of Mrs Patel Bidi Products 743143, Cement chawl, Gromtipur Road, Ahmedabad (GJ/25100), we would like to inform you that to avail the benefits of Provident fund for bidi workers tripartite negotiations is between Labour department Gujarat, bidi workers representative, ~~and~~ employers / contractors representative to form a tripartite provident fund trust which would collect the provident fund contribution from the employers / workers and deposit the same with Provident Fund office is going on. ~~As we are~~

~~As we are~~

As we are negotiating this arrangement and we would reach the settlement soon, we request you to keep this case pending.
