Dear Shri N. Balakrishnanji

Two ~~hours~~ ago I received a phone call from a lady informing me that 3 of them would be coming to Amritsar on 24th. I was happy & welcomed it. Our discussion about their stay and hospitality were being discussed when the telephone went off or was closed down. I expected that there ~~was~~ ^{would be} a further call but it has not come. I am therefore writing this letter to clarify me a few things.

o/c
I stand by the offer of hospitality to the extent I offered in my letter to you. I hope all the remaining expenses of our honoured guests will be met by the Nehru Museum & Library or by themselves. I am not ~~very~~ happy to make this clear because ours is not a very rich organisation and I too have my limitations. In fact, I would not like our organisation to pay anything as they are coming to meet me.

I am writing this letter to because our honoured guests may be under the impression that we will bear all the expenses incurred during their stay at Amritsar.

With kind regards!

Dr. N. Balakrishnan,
Deputy Director
Nehru Memorial Museum & Library,
Teen Murti House,

Yours Sincerely,
Satyapal Dang
