Sri R. VENKATARAMAN
Hon'ble Vice-President of India
Chairman, Rajya Sabha
NEW DELHI

Hon'ble Sir,

The National Campaign Committee, under the active guidance of Justice V.R. KRISHNA IYER has drafted a model bill and Scheme for Construction Labour. Construction workers from all parts of India plan to march to Parliament on December 5, to present a memorandum to your goodself along with the copy of the bill and the scheme. The memorandum signed by lakhs of workers, asks for setting up of a Tripartite Board and implementation of social security legislation for this exploited section. A copy of the memorandum etc. has been submitted to the Petition Committee through the Speaker.

We would request you to most kindly grant an appointment on Dec.5 at 1.00 PM for representatives from different States to meet you and present the memorandum at the Parliament premises.

We seek your kind co-operation in our endeavour to extend to the 2 crore Construction Workers of this country the benefits that are promised to them in the Constitution of the Republic and in the various laws enacted by the Government of India.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

R. Venkataramani
